Level 3

A colorful illustration of a landscape under a blue sky. In the center is a bright yellow sun with radiating lines. It is surrounded by several white, puffy clouds. On the left, there's a large green tree with dark green leaves and a brown trunk. On the right, another large green tree is visible. The ground in the foreground is a mix of green grass and some dark, jagged rocks or plants.

C'était le premier jour des vacances.

Feroz aurait dû être très content.
Il avait tout le temps qu'il voulait pour jouer.

Mais au lieu de cela, il était triste.
Il ne voulait pas manger.

Il avait du mal à trouver le sommeil.
Il ne souhaitait pas jouer avec ses amis.
Il ne souhaitait pas lire ses BD préférées.
Il ne souhaitait même pas jouer à cache-cache avec Noah, son meilleur ami

Feroz et Noah entretenaient une relation particulière.
Feroz avait adopté Noah dans un refuge.

Noah vivait avec Feroz. Ils étaient inséparables.

Ils se promenaient ensemble,
jouaient à des jeux débiles,
partageaient de délicieux repas,
et dormaient l'un à côté de l'autre.

Feroz adorait passer du temps avec Noah. Il était parfois très triste, mais Noah parvenait toujours à lui redonner le sourire. Peut-être parce qu'il comprenait la tristesse de son ami humain. Avant d'être adopté au sein de la famille de Feroz, Noah avait été très triste lui aussi.

Lorsque Feroz était trop triste et ne parvenait pas à se lever pour aller jouer dehors, Noah venait se blottir contre lui dans son lit.

Parfois, la tristesse étreignait Feroz et le suivait partout comme son ombre.

Malgré tout, les jours où Feroz se sentait triste, aller se promener avec Noah
lui remontait toujours le moral.

Feroz se sentait moins accablé de tristesse lorsqu'il était en compagnie de Noah.

Plus il passait de temps avec lui,
mieux il se sentait.

Bien qu'il se sentait parfois encore triste et que certains jours étaient plus difficiles à supporter que d'autres, Feroz savait qu'il pourrait toujours compter sur Noah.

Il avait à nouveau envie de faire des choses.
Lire des BD, jouer au foot, jouer à cache-cache...

... avec Noah à ses côtés.
Prêt à le suivre partout !
