Level 2

Roobo, le petit robot rose, n'avait pas d'ami.

Il décida d'en trouver un.

Mais où et comment trouver un nouvel ami ?

Il alla dans le parc tout proche.

Il vit deux petites filles qui jouaient.

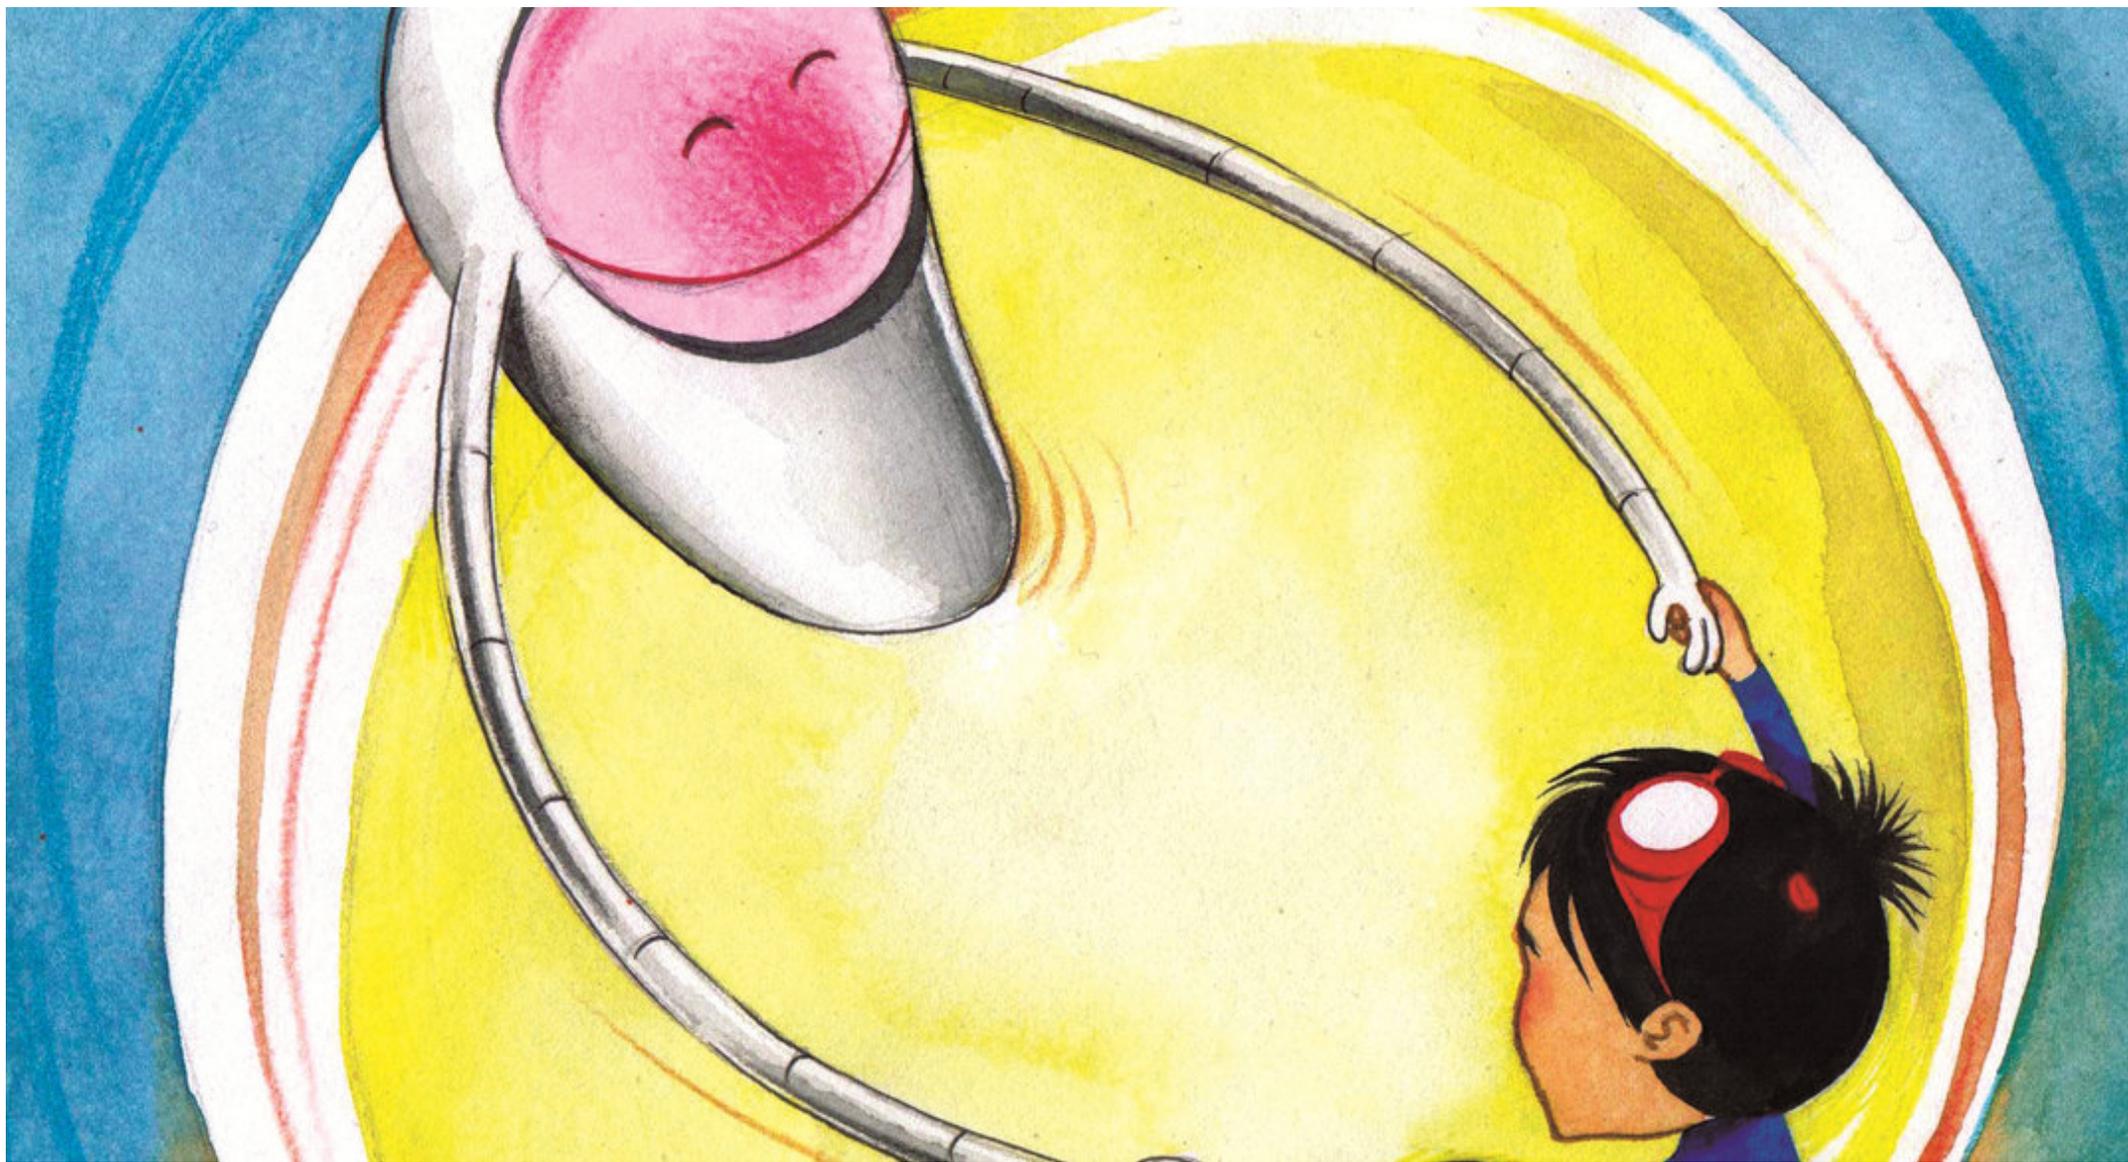

Roobo était triste.

À la vue de ce petit robot triste,
Lily, l'une des petites filles, s'approcha.

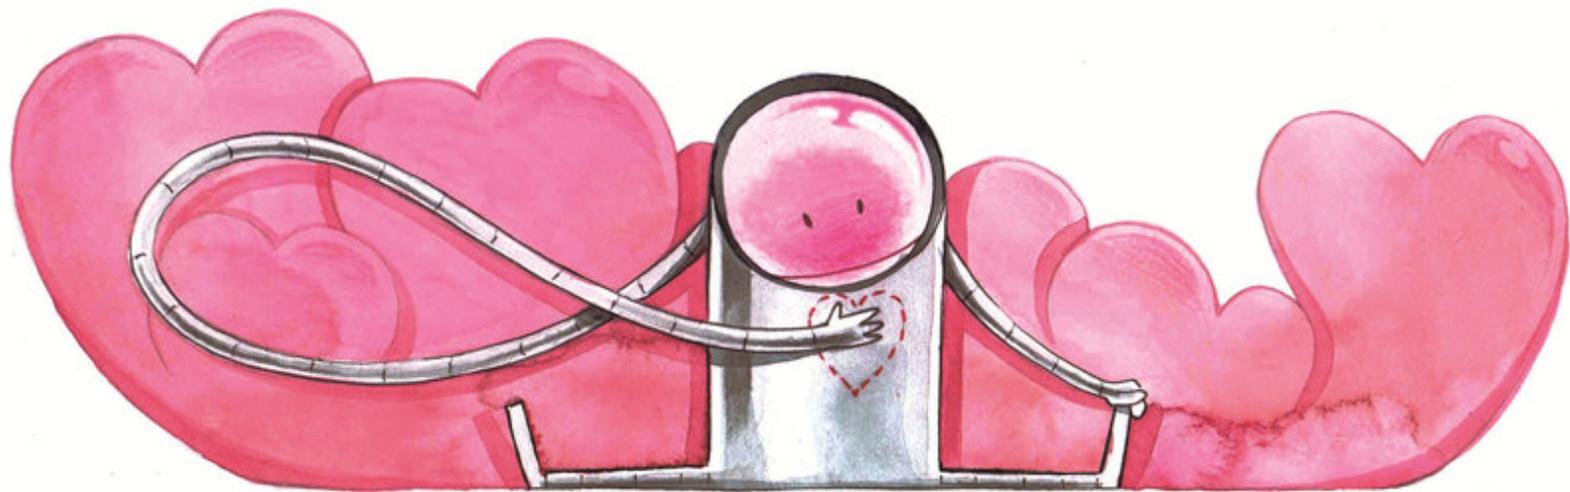

- Bonjour, je m'appelle Lily, dit-elle.
- Bonjour, je m'appelle Roobo, répondit Roobo en lui serrant la main.

Ils passèrent le reste de la journée à jouer.
Roobo était très heureux.

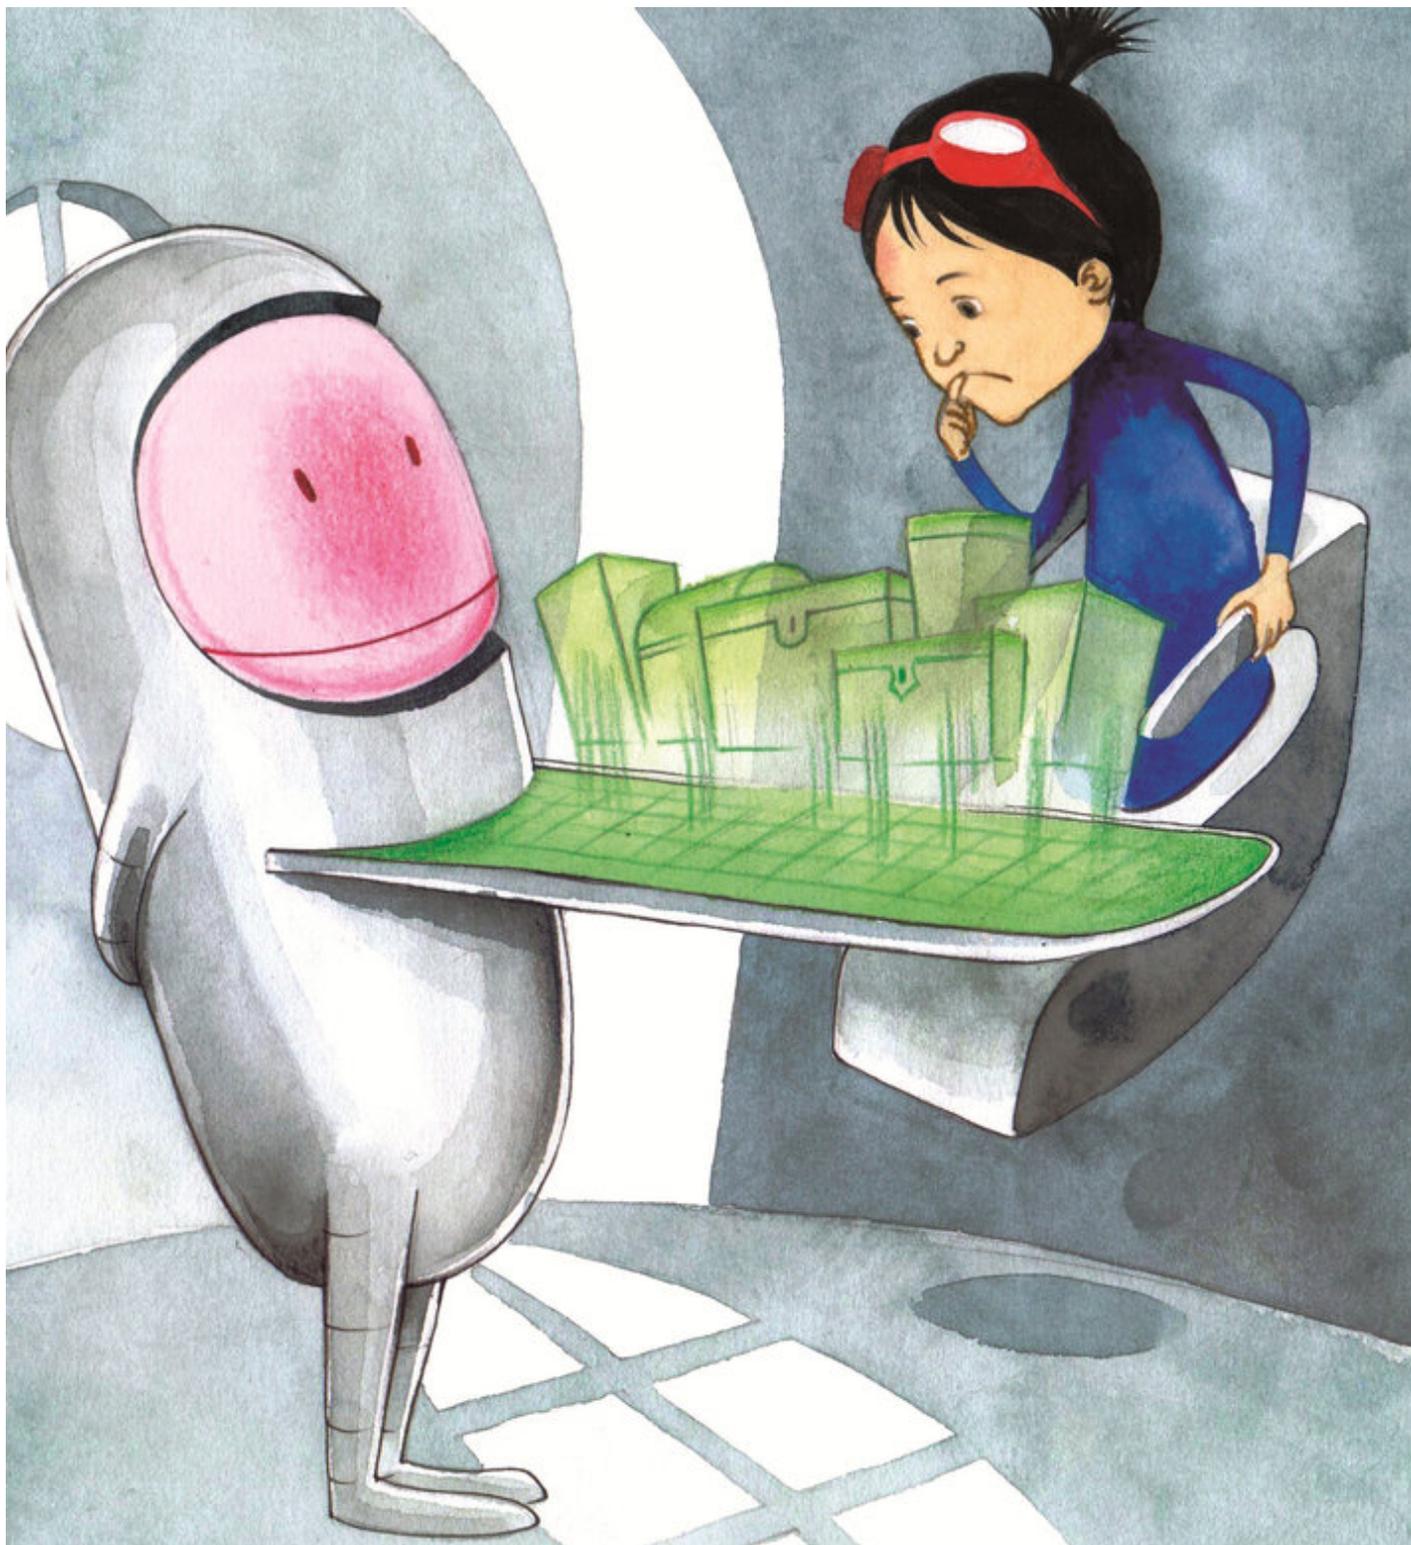

Il se sentait à nouveau comme un gentil robot plein d'amour à partager.

Un jour, Roobo parla à Lily de son nouveau projet : ils allaient construire un train ensemble. Il lui montra une photo.

Mais comment faire ?
« Réfléchissons ! » suggéra Lily. Et ils se mirent à réfléchir.

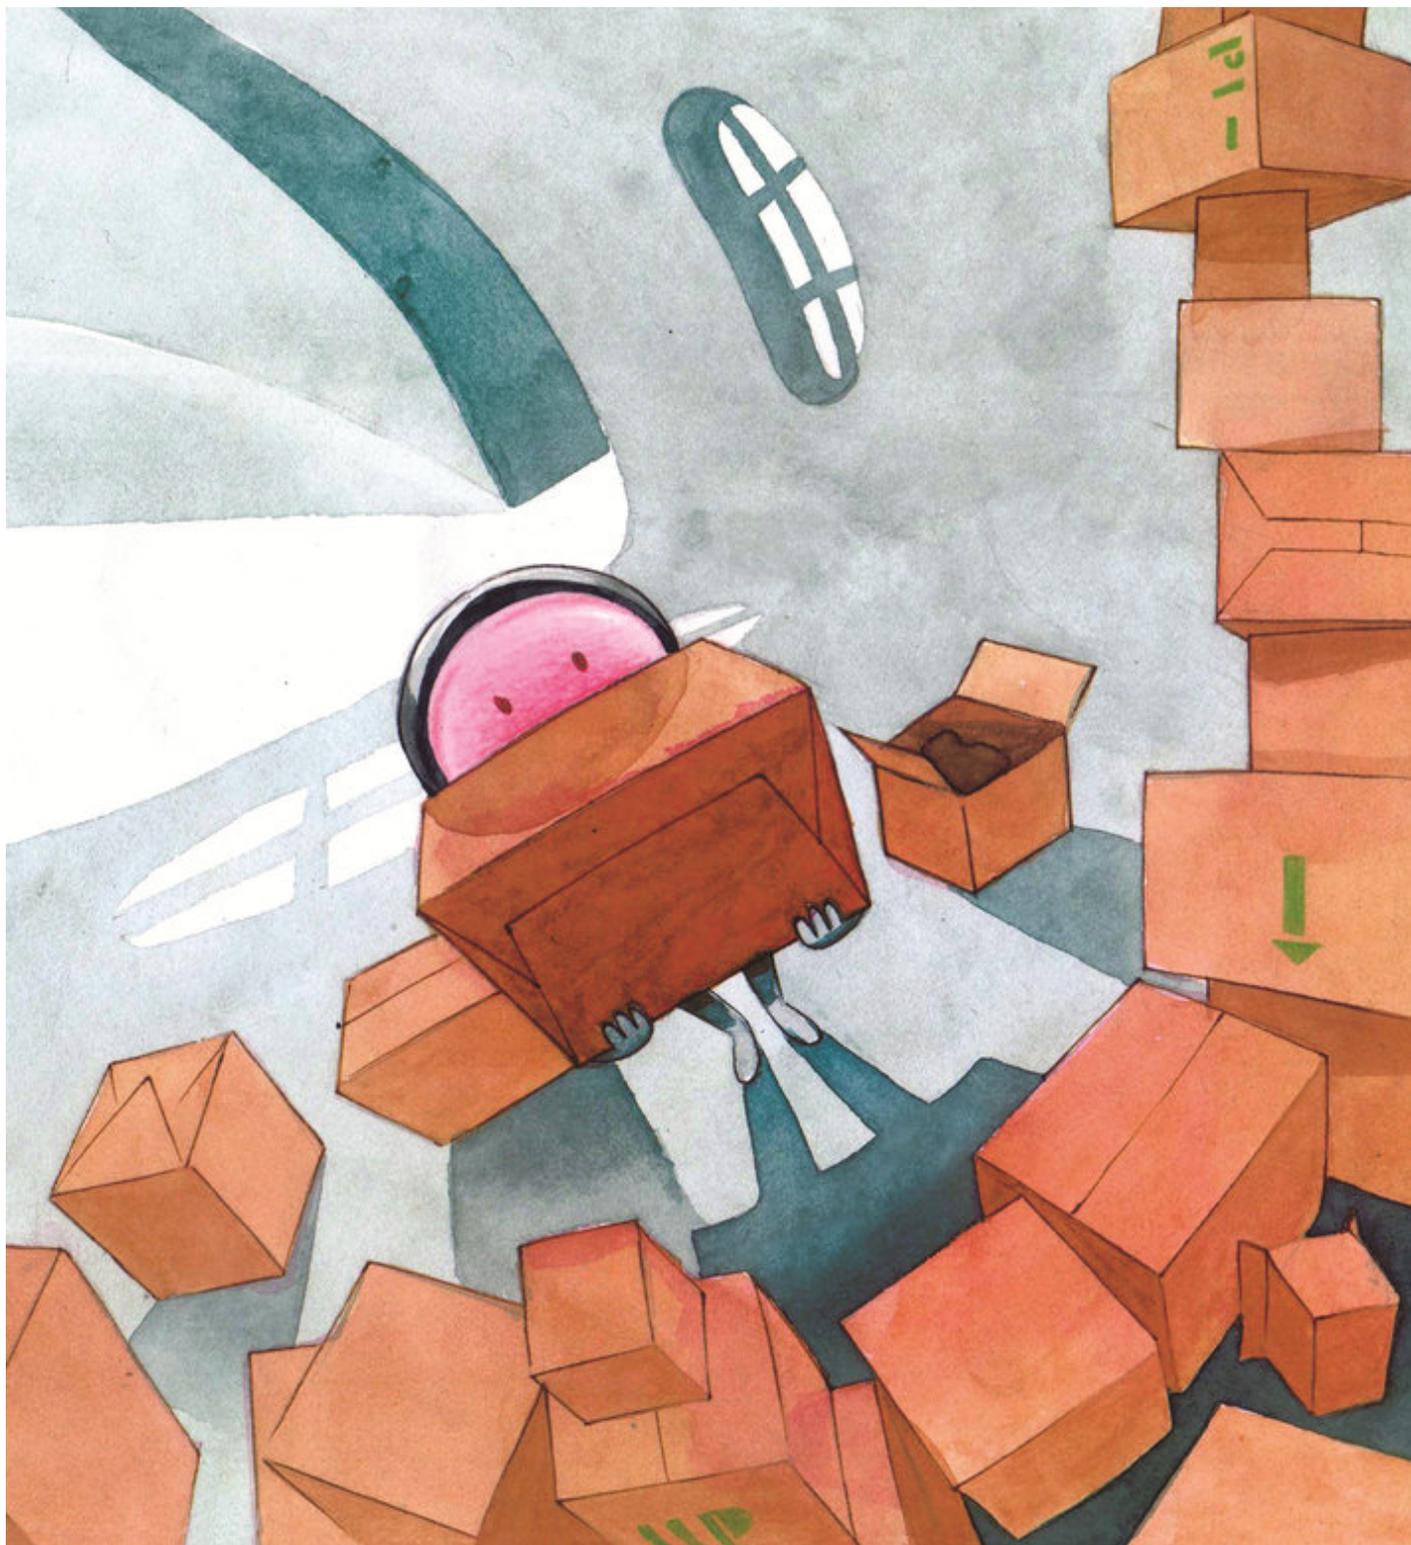

Roobo était doté de nombreux pouvoirs électroniques.

Il les utilisa pour créer des boîtes vertes.

— Alors, qu'en penses-tu, Lily ?

— Non, elles sont trop petites, répondit Lily en secouant la tête.

Roobo apporta plein d'autres boîtes. En carton. Marron.

— C'est parfait, s'écria Lily en souriant.

Ils attachèrent les boîtes entre-elles avec de la corde.

Roobo prit place dans l'une d'elles.

Pour célébrer l'événement, il avait enfilé un chapeau de fête.

Il motorisa l'engin de Lily et le relia aux boîtes.

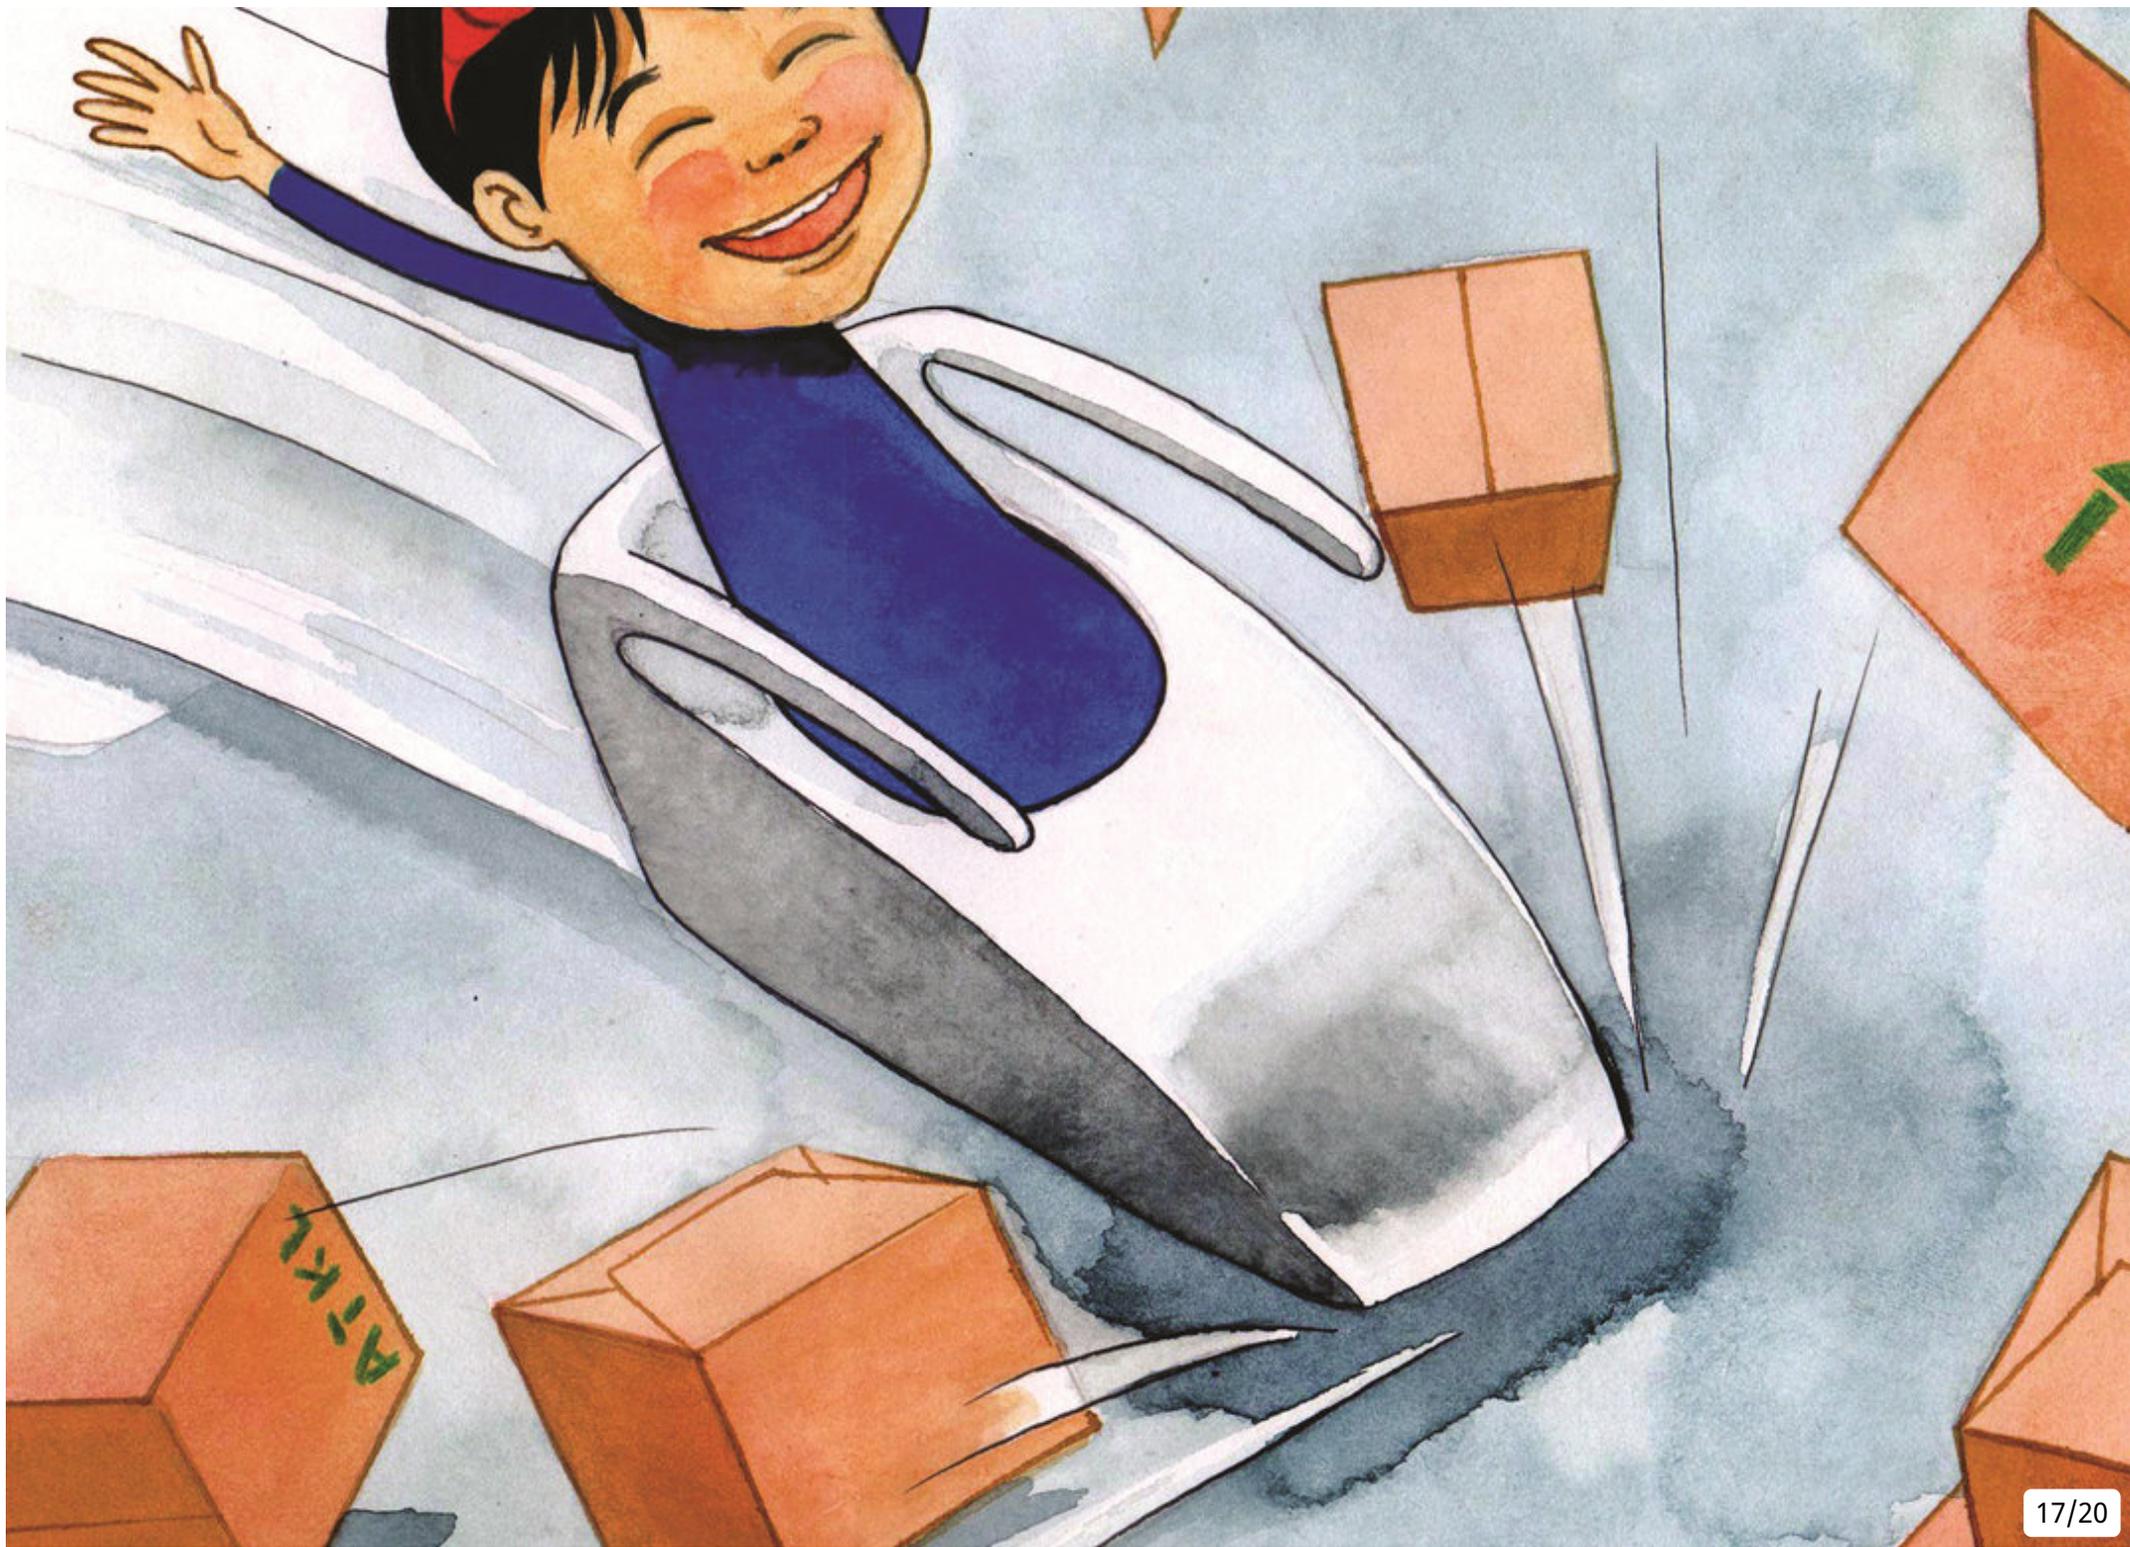

Ils démarrèrent.

Tchou ! Tchou !

Tchou ! Tchou !

Le train s'ébranla.

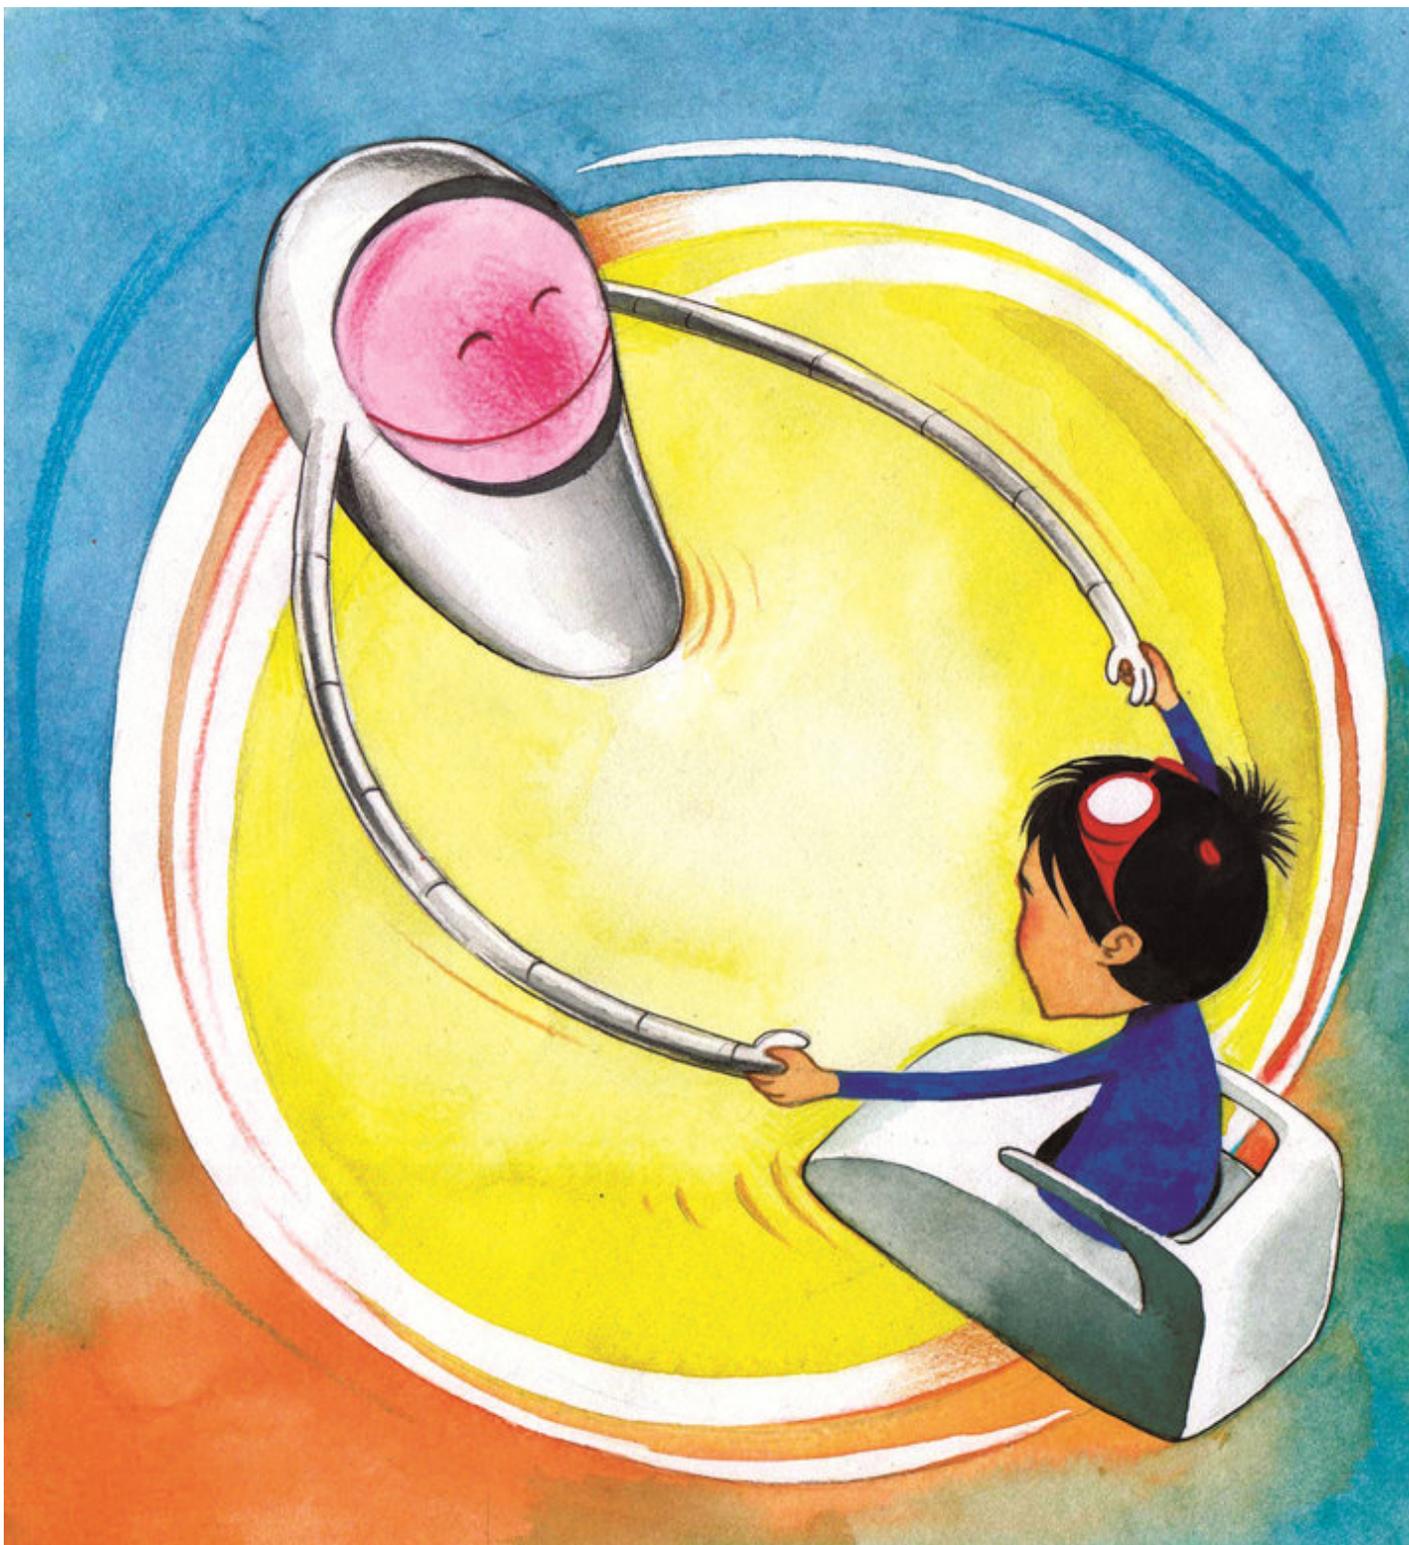

En haut, en bas.

Lily et son nouvel
ami se déplacèrent
dans tous les sens.

Comme dans des montagnes russes.

Roobo et Lily sont très bons amis, maintenant.

Roobo est enfin redevenu un robot heureux.

Grâce à Lily, Roobo se fait désormais plein de nouveaux amis.
